Description:

Review "The chapter on "The Formula of Champions" by itself is worth 1,000 times what someone will pay for this book. It is the single biggest insight to producing results I have seen." -- Mitch Huhem, President Millionaires in Training, A top Rexall Distriputor

"This is an absolute must read for the person who wants to enjoy life more, have more, and contribute to others at a very high level. Brian Klemmer captures the often elusive essentials in being a master of the game called life." -- Mark Victor Hansen, co-author of the best selling Chicken Soup for the Soul

"We were so impressed with Brian's training that we offered it to everyone in our factory! The effects were visible and immediate. Many, many employees thanked us for this opportunity to improve their personal lives. This book provides the unique insights into the culture necessary for success in any organization. It is focused on people and personal responsibility. I recommend this book to anyone who wants to improve themselves or their organization. It is more than a must read. It is a must do!" -- Mike Simmons, Vice President Finance and Planning, The Fulton Group of Companies --This text refers to an out of print or unavailable edition of this title.
