Description:

Review "The first in the Solitary Tales series draws listeners into the frightening story of Chris Buckley, a troubled youth from a broken family who has just moved into a town full of secrets. There he meets beautiful Jocelyn Evans, whose life is also full of mysteries. Narrator Kirby Heyborne brings this Christian thriller to life with an emotional detachment that contrasts with nightmarish story. His even-toned voice forces the listener's involvement and provides a thrilling experience. Don't listen in the dark."
