Description:

Review "Supreme Master Ching Hai once again offers an example of behavior to which we should all aspire. Supreme Master has rescued the stray dogs she has encountered and rekindled their trust in the human race through her unconditional love and her limitless kindness. How you treat animals determines the direction of this world. If we are to evolve, we must treat voiceless, helpless animals with dignity, love and kindness. Oh, if only we could have a million Supreme Masters to rescue and love all the dogs that abound! Instead, we can only hope that people around the world listen to Supreme Master's wisdom and advice. --Jane Velez-Mitchell, Vegan Emmy-winning news journalist

The Supreme Master Ching Hai has kindly told us that animals have feelings as we humans do. She has set a living example for us to understand that they are beings just like us with different clothes.

Even though, theirs are much more beautiful and colorful than humans'. They have more love and a larger capacity to forgive so that, despite how they are treated, they still can keep living with us. Their love is so boundless that most of the time we get surprised by their purity and simplicity. -- Gustavo Ajax, Government Employee, Mexico

The hidden divine message in this book will flow from heart to heart and inspire human beings to stop killing other beings. --Kamlung Cheng, concert violinist, concert master of Amsterdam symphony orchestra

About the Author The Supreme Master Ching Hai was born in Central Au Lac (Vietnam). At the age of eighteen, Master Ching Hai moved to England to study, and then later to France and then Germany, where She worked for the Red Cross and married a German physician. After two years of happy marriage, with Her husband's blessings, She left Her marriage in pursuit of enlightenment, thus fulfilling an ideal that had been with Her since Her childhood. This began a time of arduous pilgrimages to many different countries that ended only when She met a perfect living Master in the Himalayas.

Master Ching Hai received the divine transmission of the inner Light and Sound, which She later called the Quan Yin Method. After a period of diligent practice, She attained Perfect Enlightenment.

To satisfy the longing of sincere Truth seekers, the Supreme Master Ching Hai offers the Quan Yin Method of meditation to people of all nationalities, religions and cultural backgrounds. Her message of love and peace brings spiritual liberation and hope to people throughout the world, reminding all to uphold Truth, Virtue, and Beauty in life.
